

Biography

307BW/STARBASE Louisiana

Minerva Saravia, Classroom Assistant

Mrs. Saravia supports the STARBASE Louisiana instructors as they present STARBASE lessons and activities to participating classes. She assists with classroom materials management, provides support to the STARBASE administrative staff and the visiting teachers, and monitors and assists students while attending classes at STARBASE.

Mrs. Saravia was born in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, but has been in the United States for the past 29 years, 17 of which she has lived in Louisiana. She graduated from Florida Atlantic University with a Bachelor's degree in Social Work and an Associate's Degree in Secretarial Careers from Miami-Dade Community College. Her guiding principle is that with education, self-discipline, and support, anyone has the potential to achieve their goals and make a difference. With over 12 years' experience in the helping profession and over 15 years in business administration support, she hopes to make a positive contribution for STARBASE mission success. Her hobbies are crafts, home organizing, reading, walking, gardening, and spending time with her husband and two children.

